IODE 100th Anniversary Grant Program for 2023

Call for Applications

Value $30,000

The grant supports programs designed to prevent, treat and alleviate abuse and neglect in children and youth. The IODE 100th Anniversary Grant program is a signature program managed by IODE Canada on behalf of the membership. IODE members and chapters can support the program by identifying suitable candidates in their communities and inviting them to apply for the Grant.

The Grant will support programs that develop a new idea, test a new approach, replicate, adapt or scale an existing evidence based proven model that identifies social issues involving youth and children. (ages 0 - 25)
